JUAN CARLOS FERRERO, FORMER WORLD NO. 1 & GRAND SLAM WINNER

Juan Carlos Ferrero turned professional in 1998 and quickly rose to prominence, winning 15 singles titles, including one Grand Slam. He reached a career-high ranking of World No. 1 in September 2003. Ferrero is best known for his clay-court prowess, highlighted by his 2003 French Open win and his 2001 Rome Masters title. Though most of his titles came on clay, he later favored hard courts. He retired in 2012 at the Valencia Open.

After retiring, Ferrero became a successful coach, notably guiding Carlos Alcaraz to multiple Grand Slam titles and a No. 1 ranking
